

THE GOSPELS OF MARK & JOHN

THURSDAY, FEBRUARY 8, 2018 AT 7 PM

TESTAMENT OF A NAKED MAN: GOOD NEWS ACCORDING TO MARK

The power of the Gospel according to Mark is brought to life in this dramatic one-man performance. Through this live encounter, the audience is transported back in time to be with Jesus on the dusty roads of Palestine and the shores of the Sea of Galilee. Hearing the Gospel as a whole will enable listeners to make connections in a new light.

SATURDAY, FEBRUARY 10, 2018 AT 7 PM

WORD OF LIGHT: GOSPEL OF JOHN IN THE FLESH

Angus writes, "My work on the Gospel of John is a journey of exploration. My hope is that, whilst the story does indeed take us to another time and place, it will help us to be much more present in the here and now. Present, first of all perhaps, to ourselves and to our own life, but also present to one another and the lives of others, and ultimately to the Word that is God, the Word that is the Life and Light of all people."

WHERE:

St. Laurence Anglican Church

5940 Lakeview Drive SW,
Calgary, Alberta

TICKETS:

Early-bird Special $15 for each or $25 for both before February 1
available via website
www.wisdomcentre.ca/events

OR $20 for each at the door

DRAMATIC INTERPRETATIONS BY ANGUS STUART

Since 2007, Angus Stuart has recited the Passion Gospel from Matthew, Mark or Luke each year on Palm Sunday. In 2010, he was inspired to memorize the whole of Mark's Gospel. The effect is dramatic! Testament of a Naked Man: Good News According to Mark has been performed over sixty times across North America and in the United Kingdom, beginning in 2010 at St. Francis-in-the-Wood, West Vancouver where Angus Stuart is an Anglican Priest.

QUESTIONS:

CALL US: 403-249-6184 (Ext. 2)

EMAIL US: wisdomcentre@stlaurence.ca

VISIT US: www.wisdomcentre.ca